Introduction

What is the RAS Foundation Community Futures Grant?

The RAS Foundation (RASf) is offering an opportunity for applicants to be awarded up to $25,000 in funding for a community project in their local area.

Taking part is easy:

- Identify a need in your rural NSW community
- Partner with a local community organisation
- Create a project plan for your initiative

Eligibility criteria

To be eligible applicants must be:

- A resident of the rural NSW community the project will benefit.

What types of projects are eligible?

The RAS Foundation invites ideas that deliver strong community benefits and result in enhanced economic and social outcomes for your community. Projects that involve collaboration between people in your town and deliver sustained and broad community benefit will be highly regarded. Applicants should be passionate about rural and regional NSW, and have a good understanding of issues affecting their community.

Infrastructure for local showgrounds and show societies are eligible. The improvements must demonstrate that they go beyond benefiting just the local show society, but also enable broader use by other community groups to run on-going projects or programs.

What projects are not eligible?

While the criteria for this program are broad, the RAS Foundation does not fund wages, consultant's fees, one-off events, operational and administration costs, travel or accommodation.

What is a Community Partner?

A Community Partner can be any local agency or group that delivers a service, provides a benefit or whose purpose is charitable in nature. For example, educational organisations, your local Show Society or service club (Rotary, The Lions Club, Apex etc).

Closing Date for applications is midnight, Sunday 15 December 2024.

Judging and selection

Applications will be judged on merit by a selection panel, including representatives from the RAS Foundation Board. Shortlisted applicants will be invited to an interview via phone or Zoom video conferencing in late January/early February 2025. The application/s judged to be the most considered, achievable and provide the greatest community benefit will be awarded up to $25,000. The RASF Community Futures Grant will be paid in two equal instalments with the first instalment paid in April 2025 and the second instalment in May 2025.

The selected projects must be implemented through the local community agency or group nominated by the entrant as their Community Partner. The successful applicant/s will be announced at the Sydney Royal Easter Show on 11-22 April 2025. A representative of the
